What is a Bursary and How Does it Work?

A Bursary is a sum of money that is awarded to enable someone to study at university or college. A lot of organisations, government or corporate, will offer the bursary to study at a university and will cover the costs of full tuition fees. Sometimes the bursary will also cover additional costs involved in studying such as textbooks, laptop, living allowance for meals and accommodation.

Often the organisation providing the bursary will require that the individual (bursar) completes work or a training program for that organisation after completing their studies. This is beneficial for both the bursar and the organisation as the bursar is provided with employment after completing their course and the organisation has a well trained and educated member to join their team.

How to Find a Bursary in South Africa to Finance Your Study?

People often talk about safety in numbers. There is no limitation on the number of bursaries you can apply for. So it is recommended to complete as many bursary applications as possible in the field of study you are interested in and where you meet the bursary requirements.
